

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## INTRODUCTION

Act No. 323, Public Acts 1913, provided for the publication of a list of books suitable for township libraries. In compliance with the act this compilation has been prepared by Miss Mabel C. True. The books included are suitable for high schools, though not obligatory. This list supplements the Preferred List of Books for District Schools. It has seemed best to repeat a few of the titles found in the former list.

Basis of Selection. In selecting these books three things have been taken into consideration: the contents of the book and its suitability; the literary value of the treatment; and the mechanical make-up of the book. This last point has influenced in the choice of editions.

Prices. The prices are strictly net—that being the discount price for which the book may be bought. If possible purchases should be made from local dealers. If they cannot meet the prices the following booksellers have agreed to furnish them at the prices quoted in the catalogue:

Macauley Brothers . . . . . Detroit
J. V. Sheehan Co. . . . . Detroit
George Wahr . . . . . Ann Arbor

The prices do not, however, include shipping charges which are paid by the purchaser from the point from which the books are purchased.

Parcel Post. Packages of books weighing not more than twenty pounds may be sent through the mail; full information on this subject may be obtained from the postmaster.

Supplies for a Library. The Library Bureau publishes a catalog entitled Card Catalog and Administrative Outfits for Small Libraries. This presents suggestive lists at outfit prices considerably lower than the individual prices of the several articles. Address Library Bureau, Detroit, Mich., for a catalog.

Special List of Books. At the end of the general list of books, there is a list of references helpful to those interested in the present war crisis. It has been reprinted through the kindness of the Review of Reviews Co.

MARY C. SPENCER,
State Librarian.

FRED L. KEELER,
Supt. of Public Instruction.

BOOKS FOR REFERENCE AND TEACHERS' LIBRARIES

The teacher may secure many public documents for the asking. These include national, state and city publications and often help out the work in geography, history, geology, natural history, physics, chemistry, biology and education. U. S. Government documents in small libraries, by Wyer, published by the A. L. A. for 10c will be of great value in selecting them.

The Encyclopedia Britannica, the New international encyclopedia and the Century dictionary and encyclopedia have not been included on account of cost. A new edition of the International is announced for 1915 and the 11th ed. of the Brittanica was published in 1911. Further information will be furnished upon request to the State library.

Everyman encyclopedia. 1913-14. 12 v. (Everyman's library) Dutton .....		3.60
An excellent general cyclopedia. Contains biographies of living people.
New practical reference library. 6 v. Hanson-Bellows co. .....		21.75
Poorly bound and printed. Beach and McMurray's new students work for teachers preferable.
DICTIONARIES
Fernald, J. C. Concise standard dictionary; abr. from New standard dictionary. 1902. Funk .....		.50
Orthography, pronunciation and meaning of about 35000 words. The design has been to adequately meet the most recent demands for an up-to-date and convenient dictionary for handy desk and home use. Publisher's Notice. Appendix contains Faulty diction, Rules for Spelling, Proper names, Foreign words and phrases current in English literature, Symbolic flowers and gems, Abbreviations and contractions.
New standard dictionary. 1914. Funk .....		10.00
Textbook markings used; common meanings of words given first, obsolete meanings last. Etymologies follow definitions making it easy for children to consult. Proper names of all kinds found in the regular vocabulary in alphabetical order. Only one place to look for a word or name. Very rich in encyclopedic material. Synonyms, antonyms and the proper use of prepositions valuable features. 32,000 quotations; 450,000 words in addition to 65,000 proper names.

- Price
- Webster's new international dictionary of the English language.
Completely rev. Ed. by W. T. Harris. 1910. Merriam.... $10.00

An entirely new edition (1910) of one of the best one volume dictionaries for general use. Except the biographical dictionary and the gazetteer, all the appendices of the earlier editions and all the supplementary material is incorporated in the main body of the work. The less important material is in fine print at the foot of the page in its proper alphabetical place.

- Webster's secondary-school dictionary. 1913. Amer. bk. co. .... 1.35

An excellent, cheap abridgement of the New international dictionary, specially adapted for use in schools or as a handy desk-book. It is fuller than most dictionary manuals both in the number of words (nearly 70,000) which include many words of recent origin, and in etymology and synonyms. Contains an unusual amount of supplementary information.—A. L. A.

PERIODICALS

- Reader's guide to periodical literature. Annual volumes, 1912-date.
Wilson..... ea 6.30

Indexes 67 periodicals under authors and subjects. Title entries are given in the case of fiction and articles with unusually distinctive titles. Includes some engineering as well as general periodicals. Book reviews are indexed and mention is made of maps, portraits and illustrations. Articles are indexed under their specific head. The indexing is most completely done.—KROEGER.

- Walter, F. K. Periodicals for the small public library. A. L. A. pub. board..... .10

An annotated list of 57 periodicals, suggested list of first magazines for a small library, and list of periodicals indexed in the abridged Poole's Index and supplement and in Reader's Guide.—A. L. A.

DEBATES

- Debater's handbook series. Wilson..... ea. .85

This series contains a considerable group of brief manuals designed specially for debators and frequently revised. Besides a careful selection of articles from recent literature, not usually accessible, there is a general statement of the subject affirmative and negative arguments and a select bibliography.—A. L. A.

The numbers published include:

| Champlin, J. D. & Lucas, F. A., eds. Young folks' cyclopedia of natural history. 1905. Holt.....       | 2.00 |
| The book will be most useful to children, who will find it too interesting to be considered mere study.—N. Y. |      |
| Chapman, F. M. Bird life: a guide to the study of our common birds. 1901. Appleton.....                | 1.70 |

	Price
Perhaps the best identification book for common birds.—WISCONSIN. Illus. by Ernest Thompson-Seton.
Dana, Mrs. W. S. How to know the wild flowers. New ed. 1900. Scribner.....	$1.70
Profusely and beautifully illustrated. An aid to the identification of flowers by those having little or no knowledge of scientific botany. The classification is that which children naturally make, by color. The book can be used to advantage by any child from the fifth grade up.—PRENTICE AND POWER.
Hodge, C. F. Nature study and life. 1902. (School ed.) Ginn..	1.27
Studies in animal and plant life, involving elementary practice in gardening, domestication of wild creatures, forestry, etc. Valuable to parent and public as well as teacher. Well illustrated.—A. L. A.
Holtz, F. L. Nature study: a manual for teachers and students. 1908. Scribner.....	1.27
Another reference book for the teacher which will be indispensable as a guide to schoolroom work in nature study. The first part is devoted to a discussion of underlying principles and methods, the second part contains subject matter of a biological nature, with suggestions on the collection of material and the presentation of lessons.—OREGON.
Keeler, H. C. Our native trees. 5th ed. 1900. Scribner.....	1.70
Best identification guide for individual use.—WISCONSIN.
McKready, Kelvin. A beginners' star book. 1912. Putnam.....	2.10
An excellent reference book, fully illustrated and with numerous clear charts. Gives tables indicating the positions of the planets until the year 1931. May be used without optical instruments, but contains directions for their astronomical uses.—OREGON.
Mathews, F. S. Field book of American wild flowers. New ed., rev. and enl. 1912. Putnam.....	1.70
Describes about 800 species with excellent drawings of large proportion and 24 colored plates. Arranged by families; avoids technicalities and makes special effort to define color. Most compact popular handbook yet provided.—N. Y. Less interesting but more compact than Dana's How to know the wild flowers.

USEFUL ARTS

Hiscox, G. D. ed. Henley's twentieth century book of receipts, formulas and processes. 1907. Henley.....	2.50
Contains under nearly 10,000 headings, formulas, processes and receipts for use in the laboratory, workshop and home.—A. L. A.
Wilbur, M. A. Everyday business for women. 1910. Houghton..	1.06
A valuable and easily understood explanation of business methods every woman ought to know. The proper drawing and endorsing of a check, bank deposits, notes, protests, getting money in emergencies, contracts, bills and receipts, employer and employee, business relations with railroads and hotels, taxes, stocks, wills and account-keeping are some of the subjects ably and clearly discussed.—A. L. A. Originally written for school girls.

CONDUCT OF LIFE. ETHICS

Alexander, J. L., ed. Boy training. Ass'n press.....	.50
Concise, practical articles by various leaders, presenting little more than the principles that should underlie the training of boys and the influences and relationships that must be reckoned with. The section on "The fourfold normal development of boyhood" presents some helpful material for workers that has not been included in earlier books. A brief but good bibliography (27 titles), introduction by Ernest Thompson Seton and foreword by the editor, who is secretary of the Boy scouts of America.—A. L. A.
Berle, A. A. The school in the home. Moffat.....	.90
Talks with parents and teachers on intensive child training.
Brown, C. R. The young man's affairs. Crowell.....	.85
Seven talks from a religious viewpoint about a young man's most vital concerns and interests; distinguished by a grasp of essentials, sound common sense and a picturesque and humorous style.—A. L. A.

Brownlee, Jane. Character building in school. Houghton.....	$0.85
"This book is the outgrowth of eight years' experience in the definite moral training of children through instruction in the right use of their power to think." A book for the teacher, being a guide to daily schoolroom work in teaching self-control, obedience, and all that makes for right living.—OREGON.
Cabot, Dr. R. C. What men live by. Houghton.....	1.27
A physician's solution of what men need—work, play, love and worship.
Call, A. P. Power through repose. New ed. Little.....	.85
The gospel of relaxation, as one may call it, is preached in this admirable little volume, which ought to be in the hands of every teacher and student in America of either sex.—WILLIAM JAMES.
Carruth, W. H. Letters to American boys. Amer. unit. ass'n....	.70
Straightforward, interesting letters about manners, attitude toward members of the family, games, the "gang", study, the teacher, learning a trade, going into business, being a doctor, etc.—OREGON.
Conklin, M. G. Conversation; what to say and how to say it. Funk..	.63
Suggestive little book, written for people who wish to improve. Point is frequently given by relating anecdotes, actual blunders and wise dicta of Stevenson, Mahaffy, Sydney Smith and other conversationalists are skilfully interlarded.—A. L. A.
Dewey, Mrs. J. M. Lessons on morals arranged for grammar schools, high schools, and academies. Hinds.....	.60
To help children to learn to decide rightly questions of conduct and to become strong and self-reliant in character.—OREGON.
Everett, C. C. Ethics for young people. Ginn.....	.45
Chapters on morality in general, duties toward one's self, duties toward others, helps and hindrances. Somewhat difficult for children, but excellent for the teacher's use.—OREGON.
Forbush, W. B. The boy problem. 6th ed. Pilgrim press.....	.45
Serious study of adolescence and of the associations formed by and for boys. Emphasis on the function of the church. Harvard guide. Extensively revised in this edition.—A. L. A.
Fowler, N. C. Art of letter writing. Sully.....	.40
A handbook covering the whole field of correspondence. Gives specific directions on good form, general advice on the body of the letter, and general information on postage rules. The suggestions on business practice will be specially helpful; the division on the art and practice of polite correspondence betrays social inexperience.—A. L. A.
Gulick, L. H. Mind and work. Doubleday.....	1.02
Stimulating, practical talks on the relation between mental condition and physical efficiency.—A. L. A.
Hyde, W. D. The quest of the best. Crowell.....	.85
"Insights into ethics for parents, teachers and leaders of boys." Sub-title. "For the top shelf, out of the boy's reach." Thus it warns against making boys self-conscious in all this study of their natures. It also warns leaders against too much self-consciousness, and gives practical, sensible, suggestions for helping boys, incidentally girls, to "find themselves." Lectures delivered before

Adams, C. C. Text book of commercial geography. Appleton. ....	1.17
General geographic conditions, followed by commerce of the several countries, nearly a third of the book devoted to U. S.—Pol. Science Quart.
Addams, Jane. The spirit of youth and the city streets. Macmillan.	1.12
Miss Addams, who has lived and worked among the poor for many years, gives us an interpretation of the longings and temptations of young people in the great city. She shows us how these longings ought to be met and how these temptations may be overcome. Though the book states many hard problems, it faces them in a buoyant helpfulness and leaves us with a feeling that we ought to be up and doing something for those who need our help, not because they are less good, but because they are less fortunate than ourselves.—AMER. - The experiences of a Boston clerk who is discharged at thirty-eight, and having no other resources, turns day laborer. Through his quick wit, his perfect health, the cooperation of a wonderfully capable wife and the opportunities offered by night schools and libraries, in less than four years he is a fairly successful contractor, with a greater success obviously to come. Whether founded on personal experience or not, the narrative is of extreme interest because of its detailed study of actual conditions and of value for its suggestiveness. Partly published in the Saturday Evening Post.—A. L. A.
- Conyngton, Mary. How to help. New ed. Macmillan..... $1.27
Practical survey of the field of philanthropic effort and suggestions for methods of aid. Revision of Manual of practical charity.—A. L. A.
- Coolidge, M. E. B. R. S. Why women are so. Holt..... 1.27
A fearless discussion of the modern woman, her inheritance, her present and her more promising future. The eighteenth and nineteenth-century woman-feminine not womanly, lacking in originality and initiative and wrongly trained and educated—is keenly analyzed and compared with the highest type of woman today, with her clear conception of woman's privilege and duty. Though many readers will not concur with some of the author's generalizations, the book has the right ring and a clear-sighted grasp of life's values and problems.—A. L. A.
- Devine, E. T. The principles of relief. Macmillan..... 1.70
Historical and practical survey, presenting typical cases and describing action in special ones. For both worker and student.—A. L. A.
- Dewey, D. R. Financial history of the United States. (American citizen ser.) Longmans..... 1.75
The best single work on our financial and monetary history. Especially valuable for the relations between democratic sentiment and financial legislation and for the period following the Civil war.—WELLS.
- Fiske, A. K. Modern bank. (Appleton's business ser.) Appleton. 1.27
Brief description of development and modern systems of banking, with chapters on trust companies, savings banks, foreign exchange, safe deposit companies.—N. Y.
- Gregory, M. H. Checking the waste: a study in conservation. Bobbs..... 1.00
A résumé, presented in very simple fashion, of the entire problem of conservation. Care of soil, water, forest, prevention of disease, economy in the use of natural resources, protection of insect-eating birds, and general observations on health and hygiene are some of the subjects. The establishment of a national bureau of health is urged. The untechnical style will attract older boys and girls as well as adults. The halftone illustrations are well chosen. References at end of each chapter.—A. L. A.
- Mahan, A. T. Naval strategy compared and contrasted with the principles and practice of military operations on land. Little.. 3.15
Discusses some recent naval operations.
- Mills, J. C. Our inland seas. McClurg..... 1.48

Ward, F. E. The Montessori method and the American school. Macmillan.....	1.12
Miss Ward takes up the method from the practical aspect of its application to American school. She goes into the matter thoroughly, answering questions which every kindergartner and primary worker is asking. She makes connection between Montessori and the work of Dewey, Parker and other American educators. The many summaries, comparisons and questions make it suitable for normal work. Good annotated bibliography.—A. L. A.
Wilson, C. D. Working one's way through college and university. McClurg.....	.85
Describes methods by which students (men and women) can support themselves while in college, and gives statistics and extensive lists of occupations, chiefly obtained from college employment bureaus. ## CHEMISTRY

- Kahlenberg, Louis & Hart, E. B. Chemistry and its relation to daily life; a textbook for students of agriculture and home economics in secondary schools. Macmillan..... $1.12
Aim has been to make the subject-matter thoroughly practical and to present it in an interesting and simple way.—INTROD.
- Smith, Alexander & Hall, E. H. Teaching of chemistry and physics in the secondary school. (American teachers' ser.) Longmans... 1.35
This volume, really two books, as each of the authors treats his subject separately, takes a place at once, alone and without a rival in an important field. It is a manual of method written for teachers from the pedagogical point of view, yet full of the authority of specialists in the subjects treated. It shows the giant strides in the study of the physical sciences in our high schools during fifteen years. The book is written for trained and prepared teachers who know their subject and to all such it should be an indispensable handbook for constant reading and reference.—WYER.

PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY. GEOLOGY. BIOLOGY

- Clodd, Edward. Primer of evolution. Longmans..... .50
Abridgement of his Story of creation, a condensed statement and a good general view of the theory of evolution.—LEYPOLDT & LIES.
- Houston, E. J. Wonderbook of the atmosphere. Stokes..... 1.27
An interesting book about the familiar phenomena of the air. Contains a good deal of information that is not included in school books and is happy in getting at the young point of view.—A. L. A.
- The wonderbook of volcanoes and earthquakes. Stokes 1.27
The interesting book on the subject that is written in a way to attract young people. Fairly well bound and reprinted; illustrated with mediocre halftones, wood-cuts, and a highly colored frontispiece.—A. L. A.
- Jordan, D. S. & Kellogg, V. L. Evolution and animal life. Appleton. 2.12

BOTANY AND GARDENING

Baker, Tarkington. Yard and garden. Bobbs . . . . .	1.27
Good general, popular treatment of the planting and care of trees, shrubs, plants and vines in the small grounds of a town or city home.— A. L. A.
Coulter, J. M. Textbook of botany, for secondary schools. Twentieth century textbooks Appleton. . . . .	1.08
Doubleday, Mrs. N. B. D. Nature's garden. Doubleday. Reprint . . . . .	1.27
Excellent popular reference book on wild flowers; too large for field use. Groups by color, and as fragrant, unpleasantly scented, conspicuous in fruit. Points out relations with insects. Good photographic illustrations, many in color.— N. Y.
Ely, H. R. A woman's hardy garden. Macmillan. . . . .	1.58

_____ Grosset . . . . .	.40
Harwood, W. S. New creations in plant life; an authoritative account of the life and work of Luther Burbank. Grosset. . . . .	.40
A clear statement of the methods by which Mr. Burbank has produced remarkable achievements in new varieties of plants, and plain directions for novices desiring to experiment in that line. Lacks index.— A. L. A.
Lounsberry, Alice. A guide to trees. Stokes. . . . .	1.60
The necessary amount of scientific knowledge regarding trees is combined with an account of the character and recognized place each tree holds in sentiment and tradition. An attractive feature of the book is the great number of drawings and illustrations in color.
McFarland, J. H. Getting acquainted with the trees. (Macmillan's standard library) Macmillan. . . . .	.40
Not scientific sketches, but popular.
Meier, W. H. D. School and home gardens. Ginn. . . . .	.72
Contains compact and thorough directions concerning most of the plants which schools and homes require, including the care of trees, shrubs and vines and the work of grafting. The study, transplanting and cultivation of wild flowers are encouraged also. In style and illustration the book is a model, but its mature vocabulary and its assumption of a pretty complete knowledge of garden theory and practice unfit it for its intended use as a textbook in grammar grades. Condensed from the Nation .
Miller, L. K. Children's gardens. Appleton. . . . .	1.02
The worthy purpose of this book is "the transforming of barren, dreary, ill-kept school grounds and other uncared for public places into bowers of beauty and good taste."— N. Y. in observation, and adapted to the understanding and vocabulary of a child.—OREGON.

- Coupin, H. & Lea, John. The romance of animal arts and crafts.
 Lippincott..... 1.27
 Apparently this is the first book upon a very unique subject.
 The subject title states that it is "an interesting account of the spinning, weaving, sewing, manufacturing of paper and pottery, aeronautics, raft building, road making and various other industries of wild life." Some of the interesting topics dealt with are suggested by the following page headings: The underground fortress —Robber crafts—The perfect incubator—Magpie fortifications—
 Cake making—The ant's pavilions—A ferocious infant—Parasol ants—Why a spider's aeroplane rises. There are about thirty illustrations.—AMER. INST. OF CHILD LIFE.
- Hornaday, W. T. American natural history Scribner..... 2.93
 Popular. Intended to bridge chasm between scientific zoology and the nature studies of grammar grades.—N. Y.
 It is a bulky volume richly illustrated with photographs and packed full of facts. Mr. Hornaday's life has been spent among wild animals, as hunter, trapper, keeper, collector; and this in spite of the very scientific cast of the book, often gives it a personal, first-hand flavor hardly to be expected in a general natural history, even when limited to American fauna.—OREGON.
- Ingersoll, Ernest. The wit of the wild. New ed. Dodd..... 1.12
 A trained observer's popular and fairly conservative comments on the habits and characteristics of birds, insects and mammals.—
 N. Y.
- Job, H. K. How to study birds. Outing..... 1.27
 A sensible guide for beginners and an interesting volume for all bird-lovers. Gives detailed directions for distinguishing both families and individuals at different seasons of the year, and describes methods of study, note-taking and photographing. Excellent illustrations from author's photographs.—A. L. A.
- Maeterlinck, Maurice. Life of the bee; tr. by Alfred Sutro. Dodd. 1.35
 This might well be called the "Epic of the bee." The intention

Long, W. J. American literature. Ginn.....	1.14
A fresh, inspirational treatment in which the distinguishing feature is the emphasis placed upon literature as an expression of the national spirit. Very full on colonial and revolutionary literature with little attention to recent writers. The biographical sketches, summaries of events, extensive bibliographies, supplementary readings and suggestive questions add to its usefulness as a text or reference.—A. L. A.
English literature. Ginn.....	1.14
An excellent history covering the whole of English literature from its origins to the end of the Victorian era and devoting a relatively large amount of space to Anglo-Saxon and Middle English writers. The treatment is fresh and suggestive; the arrangement, with its individual biographies, summaries of events and chronological tables, makes the work useful for reference; much helpful material for study and teaching is given in the form of bibliographies, supplementary reading and suggestive questions, and the illustrations are notable for variety and interest. Rather advanced for high school students, but a helpful reference volume for the college student or general reader.—A. L. A.
Mabie, H. W. Backgrounds of literature. Macmillan.....	1.27
Contents: The Lake country and Wordsworth—Emerson and Concord—The Washington Irving country—Weimar and Goethe—The land of Lorna Doone—America in Whitman's poetry—The land of Scott—Hawthorne in the new world.

Story of life in the Klondike. The hero, a magnificent dog, finally obeys the call of the wild and relapses into savagery, because his last and best friend was killed by the Indians.—A. L. A.
————— John Barleycorn. Century.....	1.17
A strangely frank confession of what are, undoubtedly, the author's adventures with intoxicants from the age of five to the present time. The book is a strong and effective plea for prohibition, incidentally for woman's suffrage as the author thinks the woman's vote will suppress the trade in alcohol. Published in the Saturday evening post.—A. L. A.

EXPLORATION, DISCOVERY, ADVENTURE

- Borup, George. A tenderfoot with Peary. Stokes..... $1.89
 High spirits, humor and extreme frankness characterize this engaging and boyish account of the Peary polar expedition. It is wholesome, sometimes fine in sentiment, but is marred by an extraordinary amount of unnecessary slang. Rear-Admiral Melville contributes the introduction. The forty-six illustrations are from photographs.—A. L. A.
- Greely, A. W. True tales of arctic heroism in the new world. Scribner..... 1.27
 Partial contents: The loyalty of Philip Staffe to Henry Hudson.—Franklin's crossing of the barren grounds.—The discovery of the Northwest passage.—Kane's rescue of his freezing shipmates.—Dr. Rae and the Franklin mystery.—Sonntag's fatal sledge journey.—The heroic devotion of Lady Jane Franklin.—Life on the East Greenland ice-pack.—Relief of American whalers at Point Barrow.—Schwatka's summer search.—The Inuit survivors of the stone age.
- Jacobs, Joseph. Story of geographical discovery. (Library of useful stories) Appleton..... .32
 From earliest times to Nansen. Compact hand-book, with supplementary tables and many maps.—N. Y.
- London, Jack. The cruise of the Snark. Macmillan..... 1.70
 An interesting account of a voyage which began at San Francisco and was to have extended to all the great seaports of the world, but which because of illness dwindled to cruising among the South Sea Islands—in describing which the author has obviously drawn on his earlier knowledge—and ended in an Australian hospital. The style is animated and without the touches of brutality not uncommon in London's work. The illustrations from photographs add nothing to the chapters which, many of them reprinted from various periodicals, are disconnected and lack unity.—A. L. A.
- Peary, R. E. The North Pole; its discovery in 1909. Stokes..... 4.08
 Peary's account of his final successful expedition in 1909, with extracts from his diary and those of his companions, and descriptions of Eskimo customs.—A. L. A.
- Stanley, H. M. My Kalulu. Scribner..... 1.21
 A story of Central Africa, full of information regarding life in the interior of the "Dark Continent."—N. Y.
- Wallace, Dillon. Lure of the Labrador wild. Revell..... 1.27
 Realistic record of an exploring expedition into the interior of Labrador.—MINN.
- Whitney, Harry. Hunting with the Eskimos. Century..... 2.97
 Fresh and entertaining account of 14 months among the natives of Greenland, whither the author accompanied Peary in 1908. Matter and style interesting to young people.—A. L. A.
- Young, E. R. My dogs in the Northland. Revell..... 1.05
 "For years, with great dogs," says the author, "I toiled and often with them was in great perils. Much of my work was accomplished with their aid so I believe in dogs and here in this book I have written of some of them and their deeds." This is the story of Mr. Young's noble work in the Eskimo region of the northwest. Those who like to read of adventure will find this book one to rejoice in greatly. Some of his other interesting books are entitled "On the Indian Trail," "Algonquin Indian Tales," and "The Apostle of the North."—AMER. INST. OF CHILD LIFE.

Stevenson, B. E. The spell of Holland. Page.....	2.10
Chatty account of Holland as the author and his wife saw it on a first visit. Somewhat out-of-the-way places are described, and there is much entertaining talk of Dutch characteristics and customs.—A. L. A.
Stewart, E. P. Letters of a woman homesteader. Houghton.....	1.06
Tells a connected story of pioneer life, full of buoyancy and pluck and the spirit of adventure.
Stockton, F. R. Buccaneers and pirates of our coast. (Every boy's library. Boy scout ed.) Grosset.....	.40
Sketches portraying redoubtable heroes, chiefly of the West Indies and the Spanish Main. Veritable history presented in a picturesque and striking way.—LIT. WORLD.
Van Dyke, Henry. The spirit of America. Macmillan .....	1.35
This is not a great book but it is a very interesting one. Dr. Van Dyke was trying to tell some educated Frenchmen what America is like. He took it for granted that they did not know very much about the soul of our people. One who reads this book should put himself in the attitude of a foreigner who is trying to understand America. If we do not feel that we know much about our own country, we shall find it most inspiring to read what he says about the self-reliance, the fair play, the will power and the social co-operation of the American people.—AMER. ### BIOGRAPHY, INDIVIDUAL

Adams. Hittell, T. H. The adventures of James Capen Adams, mountaineer and grizzly bear hunter of California. Scribner....	1.27
In type, illustration and binding an exact reprint of a book first published in San Francisco in 1860. An extremely readable account of hunting and trapping in California in the 50's set down virtually from Adams' dictation. It contains much information on Indian customs, the game of the far West, snatches of coast Indian jargon, and descriptions of the country as far east as Salt Lake. A postscript tells of Adams death in 1858. "More exciting than most dime novels, but a classic of the Pacific Coast that will charm the average boy."—A. L. A.

| Mitchell, S. W. The youth of Washington. Century..   | 1.00 |
| Dr. Mitchell has, in a very delightful way, caught the spirit of the life and times of George Washington. In translating this spirit into an autobiography supposedly written by the great man himself in a retrospective glance at his youthful days, the author treats the subject in a fresh, unique way. The story portrays the events of his early days and the narrative of his friendships; his home life; his training as a surveyor; his youthful career as Colonel Washington in the French and Indian war, are told with a rare appreciation of the character of this man, and with a freedom from bombast which is delightful. The language is unusually clear and beautiful. |             |

ENGLAND

- |  |      |
|--|------|
| Babasaheb, M. N. Impressions of British life and character. Macmillan. . . . .   | 2.02 |
| The Hindu chief gives a series of sketches and impressions, from the standpoint of the traveler, of British life and character compared with people and habits of India. |      |
| Cross, A. L. A history of England and Greater Britain. Macmillan   | 2.25 |
| This excellent history of England from Roman days to the middle of the present year and covering more than 1100 pages, appears very opportunely at the present time.     |      |
| Fielding-Hall, H. The passing of empire. Macmillan. . . . .  | 2.25 |
| This discussion of India and its relation to the British empire is of particular significance now when sedition is rife in Hindoostan and                                |      | the shadow of a Russian bear persists, despite the fact that Russia happens to be the ally of England in the present conflict.

Ford, Edward &amp; Home, Gordon. England invaded. Macmillan. . . .	$1.70
A serious and well-founded forecast of what would happen in case a German army landed on the English coast.
Jebb, Richard. The Britannic question. Longmans. . . . .	.32
How to effect a closer and permanent union between self-governing states of the British empire is the test of Dr. Jebb's monograph.
Lea, Homer, General. The day of the Saxon. Harper. . . . .	1.62
This is a brilliant analysis of the part played by Saxon civilization in the world's history and a tribute to its great achievements.
Munroe, H. H. When William came. Lane. . . . .	1.05
A vivid and appealing, although imaginative story of what would happen to England if the Germans conquered her and began to alter the processes of government to the Hohenzollern pattern.
Wells, H. G. Social forces in England and America. Harpers. . . . .	1.80
According to Mr. Wells himself this gives "a fairly complete view of all my opinions."
Wingfield-Stratford, Esme. The history of English patriotism. 2 v. Lane. . . . .	6.75
A review of the great fervid moments of British history from the defeat of the Spanish Armada to the battle of Trafalgar.

FRANCE

Bracq, J. C. France under the Republic. Scribner. . . . .	1.27
An attempt to gauge the great political experiment of France during the last four decades, and to make an inventory of the constructive and reformatory work of the Republic.
Fling, F. M. &amp; H. D. Source problems of the French revolution. Harpers. . . . .	.99
A summary of documentary and other evidence.
Poincare, Raymond. How France is governed. McBride. . . . .	2.02
The president of the French republic in this volume gives us discussions of elementary civics as applied to French political life, tracing the history of the administrative machinery of the French government, national and local.
Vassili, Paul. France from behind the veil. Funk. . . . .	3.37
A chronicle of the social and political life of France for half a century beginning with the reign of Napoleon III and closing with the Paris of "the day before yesterday."

GERMANY

Bernhardi, F. Germany and the next war. Longmans. . . . .	2.70
This is a candid expression of the German purpose to predominate and created a great sensation in Germany when published, going through many editions in a short time. General Bernhardi does not merely produce a book in praise of war; he deliberately advocated not only preparation for war, but also war itself. He writes from the standpoint of one who thinks that aspirations for peace threaten to poison the soil upon which the German people live.

	Price
Bigelow, Poultney. History of the German struggle for liberty. Harper. .....	$9.00
An account of the heroic moral and spiritual, as well as physical warfare which the German people waged to obtain the degree of liberty that they now possess.
Bulow, Bernhard von, Prince. Imperial Germany. Dodd. .....	2.70
A story of the historical development of the German empire, by the ex-chancellor, with a discussion of how the Germans built a great naval power, why they have expanded colonially, and what Socialism means to them.
Collier, Price. Germany and the Germans from an American point of view. Scribner. .....	1.27
One of the best discussions of the German people and their character and problems which has appeared in recent years. An unusually intimate knowledge fitted Mr. Collier for the task. A significant sentence at the end of the chapter on Frederick to Bismarck is "We shall have war when the German Kaiser touches a button and gives an order and the German people will have no more to say in the matter than you and I."
Evans, M. B. &amp; Merhaut, Elisabeth. A character sketch of Germany. Heath. .....	.90
A picture of modern imperial Germany by means of a series of readings in German by eminent German authors.
Fried, A. H. The German emperor and the peace of the world. Doran	1.80
A Nobel prize essay of immediate timeliness.
Holland, A. W. Germany. Macmillan. .....	1.80
A new recounting of the story of Germany's nationhood, and how it came to be, from prehistoric times to the saber rattling of Zabern, written in clear, interesting style, is the volume "Germany," in The making of nations series. This volume is by A. W. Holland, of Oxford, author of "Germany to the present day."
Hurd, A. S. &amp; Castle, Henry. German sea-power. Scribner. .....	2.92
A book which may be said to ask the question "Will Anglo-Saxon or German civilization predominate in the world?" According to the authors, neither the United States or Great Britain has thoroughly understood the causes for the present naval and economic growth of the German empire, and in explanation they take the ground that Germany has a maritime history and possesses maritime instincts of which her naval development is an outcome.
Lichtenberger, Henri. Germany and its evolution in modern times. Holt. .....	2.25
A book to be recommended unconditionally for its comprehensiveness, insight and impartiality.
Perris, G. H. Germany and the German emperor. Holt. .....	2.70
A useful summary of the characteristics and achievements of William of Germany.
Roberts, Elmer. Monarchical socialism in Germany. Scribner. .....	1.12
A succinct, workmanlike book on the efficient organization of the empire.
Shaw, Stanley. William of Germany. Macmillan. .....	2.25
A sketch, by an Englishman, and for English readers, of the German emperor.

- |  | Price  |
|--|--------|
| Tower, Charles. Germany of today. Holt . . . . .  | $0.45 |
| A concise account written without any non-essentials.  |        |
| Usher, R. G. Pan-Germanism. Houghton . . . . .  | 1.45   |
| Professor Usher, beginning with the great international movement, Pan-Germanism, considers the grounds for the existing jealousies between England and Germany, the relation of Russia, France, and Austria to the affair, the effects of the Balkan war upon the balance of power, and discussed with brilliance the relation of the United States to these new conditions in European diplomacy. |        |
| Wile, F. W. Men around the Kaiser. Lippincott . . . . .   | 1.57   |
| A fascinating, illuminating picture of those earnest, efficient personalities in war, government, finance, industry, art and diplomacy, who have made the German empire what it is.  |        |

AUSTRIA

- |  |      |
|--|------|
| Baker, James. Austria: her people and their home lands. Lane . . . .  | 5.85 |
| An excellent informational description of the polyglot character of the Austrian empire.   |      |
| Hengervar, L. H. von, Baron. Hungary's fight for national existence. Macmillan . . . . .  | 2.92 |
| A very illuminative presentation.  |      |
| Hungary: its history and revolutions. Macmillan . . . . .   | .85  |
| A serviceable history, with a memoir by Kossuth added.   |      |
| Kellner, L. &amp; others. Austria of the Austrians and Hungary of the Hungarians. Scribner . . . . .  | 1.35 |
| Packed full of information well put.   |      |
| Steed, H. W. The Hapsburg monarchy. Scribner . . . . .  | 2.25 |
| An attempt to "dwell less upon the points of difference than upon the features and interests that are common to the peoples ruled by this famous house." |      |

ITALY

- |  |      |
|--|------|
| McCullagh, Francis. Italy's war for a desert. Browne . . . . .                  | 2.48 |
| Brilliant and comprehensive, but decidedly pro-Turkish.                                |      |
| Orsi, Pietro. Cavour and the making of modern Italy. Putnam . . . .             | 1.35 |
| A sympathetic story of the career of the great Italian liberator and its significance. |      |
| Zimmern, H. Italy of the Italians. Scribner . . . . .                           | 1.27 |
| A compact account of Italian characteristics and achievements.                         |      |

THE BALKANS

- |  |      |
|--|------|
| Cassavetti, D. J. Hellas and the Balkan wars. Dodd . . . . .  | 2.70 |
| A study of Greek history during the past half century, particularly in its relation to the wars with Turkey and Bulgaria.  |      |
| Lazarovich-Hrebelianovich, Prince. The Servian people; their past glory and their destiny. Scribner. 2 v. . . . . . | 4.50 |
| A glowing statement of Servia's ambitions.   |      |
| Lyde, L. M. The Balkan peninsula. Macmillan . . . . .   | 1.20 |
| A useful compendium of maps.   |      |

- |   | Price         |
|---|---------------|
| MacDonald, John. Czar Ferdinand and his people. Stokes.....  | $3.60 |
| A careful, judicial study of the personality of the Czar of Bulgaria, with a brief history of the Bulgarian people, and much that is useful about the Bulgarian army. |               |
| Sloane, W. M. The Balkans. Meth. bk.....   | 1.35   |
| An exhaustive treatment of the causes, progress and results of the late wars with the Balkans.  |               |

RUSSIA

- |   |             |
|---|-------------|
| Graham, Stephen. Changing Russia. Lane.....  | 2.03 |
| By a widely known traveler and scientific observer well acquainted with Russia.   |             |
| Kluchevsky, V. O. History of Russia. Dutton. 3 v.....  | 2.25 |
| Not a simple narrative of political or international happenings, but a remarkable study of Russian social, economic and international history based upon years of personal research in the available historical sources of the subject. |             |
| Mavor, James. Economic history of Russia. 2 v. Dutton.....   | 9.00 |
| Russian history has been thoroughly rewritten within twenty years. It is a survey the importance of which can scarcely be over-estimated.   |             |
| Vassili, Paul, Count. Behind the veil of the Russian court. Lane...    | 4.05 |
| Intimate revelations of the social, political, and family life of the Russian royal family and their retinue.   |             |
| Williams, H. W. Russia and the Russians. Scribner.....   | 1.27 |
| An account of the political ascendancy and situation, and of the leading figures in Russian politics, as well as of the country's social and economic relations.  |             |

WAR

- |  |             |
|--|-------------|
| Angell, Norman. Arms and industry. Putnam.....  | 1.05 |
| This companion volume to Mr. Angell's now famous book, "The great illusion," concerns itself chiefly with the relations and inter-relations between modern states. While it treats chiefly of the moral and material factors of international politics, it also discusses credit, military force, and diplomacy. |             |
| Grane, W. L. The passing of war. Macmillan.....   | .90  |
| In this volume, which Mr. Grane calls, "a study in things which make for peace," the text is given in a sentence of the late King Edward VII, of Great Britain: "I am convinced that as civilization advances, the influence of Christian teaching will tend increasingly to inoculate the love of peace."       |             |
| Hurd, Archibald. Our navy. Warne.....   | .45  |
| An up-to-date, comprehensive history of the British navy, with figures and statistics particularly with regard to its development during the past twenty years.  |             |
| Jordan, D. S. War and waste. Doubleday.....   | 1.12 |
| Dr. Jordan is one of the best known and most courageous advocates of disarmament and general peace. He has for years been devoting his energies and time to convincing the world that war does not pay. This is a graphic and keen presentation of the economic loss occasioned by war.                          |             |

	Price
Lamszus, Wilhelm. The human slaughter house. Stokes.....	$0.45
An extraordinarily keen analysis of the atrocities of war. All the deceptive glamor is stripped from battle and its horrors laid bare with shuddering, yet fascinating strokes.
Neland, O. H. The crimson fist. Badger.....	1.12
A brilliant indictment of war. The author "convicts" the home, the school, the church, the press, and government of molding the character of the individual "to a spirit of aggressive patriotism, and thus to love for war."
Newton, W. D. War. Dodd.....	1.08
"Sensational and disgusting, because it is an account of the sensational and disgusting thing called war." There is an introduction by Rudyard Kipling.
Noyes, Alfred. The wine press. Stokes.....	.54
A powerful argument in verse against war, with an epilogue that loftily visions the dawn of peace.
Schurman, J. G. The Balkan wars 1912-1913. Princeton univ. press.....	.90
A compact history, illuminatingly written, of the two Balkan wars of 1912-13, has been given by Dr. Jacob Schurman, president of Cornell university. This little volume is one of "The Stafford Little lectures."
Wells, H. G. The world set free. Dutton.....	1.22
An elaboration of Mr. Wells' creed which has for its goal the end of war, and the realization of a real parliament of the world. It crackles with Mr. Wells' best style.

TRADE OF THE WORLD

Whelpley, J. D. The trade of the world. Century.....	1.80
A comprehensive and stimulating account of the forces and facts that make up the activities of the great trading nations.

INTERNATIONAL LAW

Hershey, A. S. The essentials of international public law. Macmillan.....	2.70
In the preface Dr. Hershey states that "the work aims to furnish the teacher and student with an up-to-date text adapted to the needs of the classroom, and also to present the specialist as well as the general public with a scientific treatment of the subject."
Hill, D. J. A history of diplomacy in the international development of Europe. v. 3. Longmans.....	5.40
While not treating directly of the present conflict, or the causes that led up to it, Dr. Hill analyzes the forces that have guided the destinies of Europe for nearly two centuries.

THE AIR AS A BATTLEFIELD

Hazeltine, H. D. The law of the air. Doran.....	1.80
Hearne, R. P. Airships in peace and war. Lane.....	3.15
The new edition of this standard work on the theoretical influence of aeronautics on war.
Mellor, C. The airman. Lane.....	.85

POLITICS AND HISTORY

	Price
Buxton, Noel, &amp; Harold. Travel and politics in Armenia. Macmillan.....	$1.35
An account of the extensive experiences of a traveler among that strange people, the Armenians, who, because of mutual jealousies of the Great Powers, may be one of the focuses of the later portion of the present European war.
Fullerton, W. M. Problems of power. Scribner.....	1.90
A survey of the relations of the Great Powers of the world and an analysis of the national situation during the past quarter of a century, from the standpoint of conscious national aims and political currents.
Gooch, G. P. History of our times. Holt.....	.45
An excellent summary of the history of Europe for the past quarter a century.
Ogg, F. A. Social progress in contemporary Europe. Macmillan....	1.35
An exhaustive and well-balanced account of the social advance of European peoples for a century.
Orth, S. P. Socialism and democracy in Europe. Holt.....	1.22
A very brilliant and stimulating account of the progress of socialism and social democracy throughout the continent.
Stuart-Linton, C. E. T. The problem of Empire government. Longmans.....	1.05
This contains several chapters on imperial defence, written nearly two years ago, prophesying the turbulent status of European governments now observed.
Torres, Albert. Probleme mondial. National library (Rio de Janeiro)	No price given
A study of the motives that guide nations in their relations one with the other, an especially interesting chapter being that on the Monroe doctrine, by this Brazilian writer.
Woods, F. A. The influence of monarchs. Macmillan.....	1.80
"Only very rarely has a nation progressed in its political and economic aspects save under leadership of a strong sovereign." This is the text of the author.

FICTION

Bazin, Rene. Children of Alsace. Lane.....	1.17
This book shows the deep feeling of loyalty to France opposed to German rule in the conquered district.
Bloem, Walter. The iron year. Lane.....	1.12
A novel which recently created a great sensation in Germany, where it was read aloud by the Kaiser to the members of the royal family.
Margueritte, Victor. Frontiers of the heart. Stokes.....	1.12
A graphic story of Alsace, of a Frenchwoman who married a German.
Oxenham, John. Red wrath. Lane.....	1.12
A story of the Franco-Prussian war dealing with many places now again the scene of war.
Palmer, Frederick. The last shot. Scribner.....	1.14
A work of fiction written by an eye-witness of all the important battles of the last twenty years, in a number of which Mr. Palmer took part. A drama rather than a novel.

SELECTED LIST OF PERIODICALS

	Price
American magazine. (monthly) N. Y.....	$1.50
Contains timely articles on subjects of current interest and men of the hour. Has good short stories and usually one serial.
Atlantic monthly. (monthly) Boston.....	4.00
Very excellent literary magazine, not illustrated and not popular in makeup.
Bird-lore. (bi-monthly) N. Y.....	1.00
The official organ of the Audubon societies. Devoted to the study and protection of birds. Well illustrated.
Current events. (weekly) Springfield, Mass.....	.40
A periodical for high school students, giving a weekly resumé of the current events. One of the best little magazines of its kind.
Everybody's magazine. (monthly) N. Y.....	1.50
One of the most popular of the cheap magazines. Contains articles on the present day problems, drama and fiction.
Garden magazine. (monthly) N. Y.....	1.50
Contains suggestions for house building and decoration as well as articles on gardens and gardening.
Good housekeeping. (monthly) Springfield, Mass.....	1.50
Of interest and value to housewives. Contains practical suggestions and household recipes. Devotes considerable space to cooking and serving food.
Harper's monthly magazine. N. Y.....	4.00
Ranks with the Century and Scribner's as an excellent general magazine, and has about the same general scope, dealing more with travel and popular science and rather less with history, biography and general literary criticism than the Century. The short stories are good and the serials usually appear later in book form. The illustrations are very good. The color plates have improved greatly in the past few years. Complete bound sets of Harper's are common and cheap but a full set is seldom necessary and requires at least an Abridged Poole's Index to make its contents accessible.
Harper's weekly. (weekly) N. Y.....	5.00
Independent magazine, which discusses topics of current interest, political, sociological, scientific and literary.
Ladies home journal. (monthly) N. Y.....	1.50
The most popular magazine for women in the field. Besides serials and short stories, often sentimental and trivial but always wholesome, contains brief articles on subjects of current interest, biographical and literary sketches, and regularly maintains departments devoted to fashions, fancy needlework, house furnishing and decoration, the preparation and serving of food, the care of children and the sick, and manners and morals—usually in the form of confidential letters to young men and women. Illustrations are not particularly valuable except those of fashions.—MACDONALD.
Literary digest. (weekly) N. Y.....	3.00
Digests articles from American and foreign magazines and newspapers which give a composite of public opinion. Also covers topics of interest in science and invention, the religious world, letters and art, miscellaneous.

Moderator-topics. (weekly) Lansing .....	$1.25
An educational magazine devoted to topics of interest to Michigan teachers.
National geographic magazine. (monthly) Washington .....	2.50
Contains well written and readable articles on travel and exploration all over the world. Admirably illustrated. As it is published by the National geographic society it is reliable and scientific in information.—VOUGHT.
Outing. (monthly) N. Y. .....	3.00
Well illustrated periodical of outdoor life.
Outlook. (weekly) N. Y. .....	3.00
One of the best known weeklies dealing with current events. Still maintains a distinctly religious tone though it is practically free from sectarian or theological bias. The regular numbers are chiefly devoted to discussions of social and political matters with one or two literary articles; the monthly "magazine numbers" contain more illustrations, fiction, and more matter of a general literary character. The book reviews are generally fair but rather colorless, especially the briefer ones. The editorials are always worthy of attention but within the last four or five years have become known as the expression of the personalities of the leading editors rather than impartial discussions. Shares with the Independent the distinction of being one of the most timely reference aids on current questions.
Popular electricity and modern mechanics. (monthly) Chicago ..	1.50
Popular magazine and widely read by men and boys.
Popular mechanics. (monthly) Chicago .....	1.50
Interesting to boys and amateur workmen, as it treats scientific subjects in a popular and interesting style.
St. Nicholas. (monthly) N. Y. .....	3.00
A popular, well-illustrated magazine for young people. Short stories, serials, articles on history, biography, travel and nature study. Special pages for small children. The articles are almost without exception well written, wholesome and interesting. Back volumes are well worth getting. There is a general index ($4) to v. 1-27.
Scientific American. (weekly) N. Y. .....	3.00
Popular presentation of science with practical information on technical subjects. Much read by boys and men.—VOUGHT.
Scientific American supplement. (weekly) N. Y. .....	5.00
World's work. (monthly) N. Y. .....	3.00
Excellent illustrated articles on the world's progress in various departments.
Youth's companion. (weekly) Boston .....	2.00
Much enjoyed by young people. Contains articles on a broad range of subjects, also short stories and serials. There are so few magazines for young people that a good, wholesome paper like this should not be overlooked.
